Parent Brag Sheet

Please answer these questions with as many details and anecdotes as possible to better help Ms. Smith write an engaging and persuasive letter of recommendation. Please have this completed for the parent/student/counselor meeting in third quarter junior year.

1. What are some of your child's outstanding accomplishments over the last 3 or 4 years?
2. Please comment anecdotally about your child using some of these topics: dependability, maturity, personality, attitude towards learning, leadership, behavior and/or work habits.
3. In which areas has your child shown the most development/growth in the last 3 to 4 years? Can you give an example too?
4. If you had to describe your child in 5 adjectives, what would they be and why?
5. What circumstances have significantly influenced your child's education experience and/or personal development?

6. Has your child had extenuating circumstances that impacted him or her significantly in school?

7. Please share any additional information you would like colleges to know about your student (perhaps something that makes your child unique amongst his or her peers, or certain extracurricular activities which do not appear on the transcript.)
